4 Any party making any motion or any party noting any hearing shall provide twenty (20)
5 days notice by mail of:

6 (a) A proposed use, sale, or lease of property other than in the ordinary course
7 of business unless the court for cause shown shortens the time or directs another method of 8 giving notice;

9 (b) The hearing on approval of a compromise or settlement of a controversy,
10 abandonment of property, or modification of the automatic stay, unless the court for cause shown
11 directs that notice not be sent;

12 (c) In a Chapter 7 liquidation case and a Chapter 11 reorganization case, the 13 hearing on the conversion of a case to another chapter;

14 (d) The time fixed to accept or reject a proposed modification of a plan;

15 (e) Hearings on all applications for compensation or reimbursement of 16 expense totaling in excess of $100.00;

17 (f) The time fixed for filing proofs of claims pursuant to 3003(c).

18 Pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 2002(b), 3017(a) and 3017(d), any
19 proponent of a disclosure statement or plan of reorganization shall provide twenty-five (25) days
20 notice by mail of:

21 (a) The time fixed for filing objections to and the hearing to consider approval
22 of a disclosure statement, along with a copy of the disclosure statement and plan only to the 23 undersigned attorney as Attorney of Record for the above-named creditor (THIS IS YOUR

1 WRITTEN REQUEST FOR A COPY OF ANY SUCH STATEMENT AND PLAN OF 2 REORGANIZATION.);

3 (b) The time fixed for filing objections to and the hearing to consider
4 confirmation of a plan;

5 (c) Notice of the time within which acceptance and rejections of such plan
6 may be filed; along with the plan or court-approved summary of the plan, the disclosure
7 statement approved by the Court, the ballot for voting on the plan and such other information as
8 the court may direct, including any opinion of the court approving disclosure statement or a
9 court-approved summary of the opinion.

10 This notice also requests notice of any and all other requests, motions, petitions or any 11 other matter filed upon the debtor, debtor's counsel or this court.
